DECLARATION FOR EXEMPTION FROM THE PRESCRIBED MINIMUM CPD HOURS

- My Gross Active Revenues did not exceed CAD 32,300 for calendar year 2024;
I was not engaged in public practice as defined in the CPABC Bylaws at any time in the calendar year 2024;
I did not serve in any of the following capacities for a public company, or reporting issuer as defined in the CPABC Code of Professional Conduct at any time during the calendar year 2024:
- i. As a member of its board or similar governing body; or
 - ii. As a member of its audit, finance, or similar governance committee; and
- I complied with the requirement of Rule 203 (Professional Competence) in the CPABC Code of Professional Conduct.

ADDITIONAL DECLARATION FOR EXEMPTION FROM ANNUAL REPORTING

In the event that you qualify for the above exemption criteria, and have no intention of performing any activity that would cause you to lose eligibility for CPD exemption, you may make a declaration and undertaking as follows for exemption from annual CPD reporting (please read carefully):

- I understand and meet the CPD exemption criteria. I have no intention of performing an activity that would require me to report CPD in a future year. In the event that my circumstances change, I undertake to notify the Registrar immediately.

Declaration:

I declare that I meet the CPD exemption criteria selected above and I acknowledge that CPABC reserves the right to request proof of eligibility for a CPD exemption. Failure to provide satisfactory proof of eligibility when requested may result in the denial of a CPD exemption, assessment of a CPD administrative fee, and/or referral to the Investigation Committee.
